

You are eligible for Subclass 462 Work and Holiday Visa

Visa Insights:

The SC462 Work and Holiday Visa presents an enticing opportunity for adventurous young individuals to embark on a journey of work and exploration in Australia. Grasping the intricacies of what is permissible and what is not under this visa is essential for maximizing your experience while ensuring compliance with its regulations. Embrace this chance to create unforgettable memories and enrich your life in the vibrant landscapes of Australia!

What You Can Do on the SC462 Visa

1. Work:
 - You can work in any job, including casual or part-time positions.
 - You can work for multiple employers and change jobs as you wish.
 - You may be eligible to apply for a second Work and Holiday visa if you complete specified work in regional Australia.
2. Study:
 - You can study for up to 4 months during your stay.
3. Travel:
 - You can travel throughout Australia and explore various regions and attractions.
4. Extend Your Stay:
 - If you meet certain conditions, you may apply for a second Work and Holiday visa after completing specified work in regional areas.

What You Cannot Do on the SC462 Visa

1. Dependents:
 - You cannot bring dependent children with you on this visa.
2. Permanent Residency:
 - The SC462 visa does not lead directly to permanent residency. If you wish to stay longer, you need to explore other visa options with the help of our Immigration Lawyer.
3. Work Limitations:
 - You cannot work for the same employer for more than 6 months unless you are working in specific sectors (e.g., specified work in regional areas).